QUALITY HOME PRODUCTS OF TEXAS RECEIVES THE 2019 COMMUNITY PARTNER OF THE YEAR AWARD FROM THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY FOOD BANK.

QHP continues to work with Montgomery County Food Bank

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS – 5/14/2019 – Quality Home Products of Texas (QHP), is honored to receive the 2019 Community Partner of the Year Award from the Montgomery County Food Bank. The award was given to QHP during the Food for Life Gala held on 4.13.2019.

The Montgomery County Food Bank’s third annual Food for Life Gala themed “Havana Nights” was a huge success for the organization. Awards were presented to 5 area businesses/organizations/ individuals, in addition to QHP, including Kroger, ExxonMobil, Carol Stomatt and the Society of Samaritans.

“We are pleased to accept the 2019 Community Partner of the Year Award from Montgomery County Food Bank. We would like to thank all of our QHP family and customers for helping us fight hunger in our communities. Without their donation and food drive, this would not be possible. We are confident that with our company money matching and Quality year-round food drive, we will be able to provide 500,000 meals in 2019.” General Manager, Brian Edwards expressed.

In 2018, QHP collected and donated 100,000 meals through donations from their customers and employees. Donations, in the form of cash or canned goods, are collected year-round from QHP customers and employees. QHP is well on their way to reaching their goal to donate 500,000 meals in 2019.
